

Fall landscape classes 2019

Water Conservation for the Home Landscape	Thurs. Oct. 3, 6:30-8 p.m. George W. Hawkes Downtown Library, 100 S. Center St.
Edible Landscapes	Thurs. Oct. 10, 6:30-8 p.m. Southwest Branch Library 3311 S.W. Green Oaks Blvd.
Drip Irrigation for a Water Efficient Landscape	Thurs. Oct. 17, 6:30-8 p.m. George W. Hawkes Downtown Library, 100 S. Center St.
How to Make Seed Balls	Thurs. Oct. 24, 6:30-8 p.m. Southwest Branch Library 3311 S.W. Green Oaks Blvd.

Do you Know your H₂O?

- The Arlington Water Utilities customer account website allows customers with remote read meters to see their daily water usage.
- If you have a remote read meter, you can set high usage and high bill alerts to help you manage your water account.
- All customers can compare up to 24 months of their water bills on the website.

Sign up at ArlingtonTX.gov/wateronline.

Follow Arlington Water Utilities:

www.facebook.com/arlingtonwater

www.twitter.com/arlingtonwater

for the latest water news about Arlington.

30640-I-0048

River Legacy Living Science Center
W.A.T.E.R. Festival

Water Awareness Through Education & Recreation

10 am - 2 pm • Saturday • September 14 • 2019

Celebrate the wonderful resource of water with a variety of family-friendly activities, crafts, games & demonstrations at this FREE water science fair!

Presented by Arlington Water Utilities

FALL FESTIVAL 2019

OCT. 12-13
 11:00AM - 9:00PM

RiverLegacy.org

#RiverLegacyFallFestival

Come FALL INTO NATURE!

The best of After Dark in the Park PLUS Eco-Fest = River Legacy Foundation Fall Festival!

Monarch Butterfly Festival • Storytelling • Animal Encounters • Eco-Demonstrations
 Bounce House • Activities & Games • Scouting Activities • Food • & More!

RIVER LEGACY
 LIVING SCIENCE CENTER
 703 NW Green Oaks Blvd. @ Cooper St.
 Arlington, TX 76006 • 817.860.6752

Special Thanks To:

Learn More: www.riverlegacy.org