

Fall Landscape Classes

Join Tarrant Regional Water District's Learn and Grow program for an online class called Fall Vegetable Gardening on Tuesday, Aug. 25 at 6 p.m. Visit www.SaveTarrantWater.com for information about how to sign up.

The following classes are scheduled for in-person instruction but may be conducted online if social distancing measures are still in place. All registered attendees will be notified promptly if a change is made. Please check back for location information at www.SaveArlingtonWater.com.

Gardening for Pollinators	Tues. Sept. 22, 6:30-8 p.m. George W. Hawkes Downtown Library, 100 S. Center St.
Rainwater Harvesting and Low Water Use Landscaping	Tues. Oct. 6, 6:30-8 p.m. George W. Hawkes Downtown Library, 100 S. Center St.
Container Gardening for North Texas	Wed. Nov. 4, 6:30-8 p.m. Southeast Branch Library, 900 SE Green Oaks Blvd.
Please RSVP by visiting the events tab at www.SaveArlingtonWater.com

Follow Arlington Water Utilities:

www.facebook.com/arlintonwater

www.twitter.com/arlintonwater

for the latest water news about Arlington.

Arlington Water Utilities wants to keep you informed!

Share your valid email address with Arlington Water Utilities to get important updates like water outage information and money-saving opportunities.

Get connected today by logging onto www.ArlingtonTX.gov/KnowYourH2O or call customer service at 817-275-5931 to update your account information.