

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the University of Texas at Arlington is a celebrated research and academic institution with global impact located in the heart of our city; and

WHEREAS, this excellence has been noted through multiple accolades, including the recent designation as a Tier One institution by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, the 2021 Military Times' Best for Vets list as the #1 institution for veterans and their families, Research 1 "highest research activity" Doctoral University designation by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, and third highest in Undergraduate Diversity Index according to U.S. News & World Report 2021 rankings; and

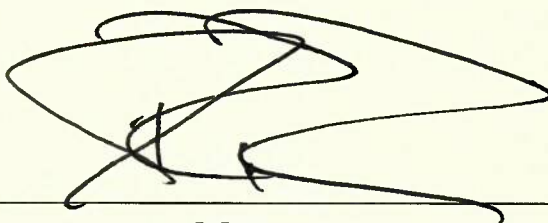

WHEREAS, these accolades do not cover the depth of the pride our hard working university students, alumni, faculty and staff bring to the Arlington community; and

WHEREAS, November 8-14th, 2021, is UTA Homecoming Week, an opportunity to celebrate our pride and the return of many beloved alumni to the university.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim R. Ross, Mayor of the City of Arlington, Texas, and on behalf of the Arlington City Council, do hereby proclaim November 8th – 14th as

MAVERICK PRIDE WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed this 9th day of November in the year of Our Lord two thousand and twenty-one.
